

2020 Celebrating Champions for Youth Winners

Advocate – An organization who advocates for programs, policies, laws to help provide Tempe youth with an environment where they can live to their full potential.

Tempe Union High School District Teen Age Pregnancy Program (TAPP) – Andrea Carmody, Kim Whitmyer, Kelli Wright

Inspiration – A community leader (e.g., educator/counselor/coach) who has inspired Tempe youth to live to their full potential.

Harold Bull – Retired Physical Education Department Chair, McClintock High School

Protector – A first responder who works in Tempe, with exemplary service advocating tirelessly to provide a safe environment where Tempe youth can achieve their full potential.

Asst Fire Chief Andrea Glass – Tempe Fire Medical Rescue

Youth Champion– An outstanding youth that continually sets and achieves goals in an effort to reach their full potential and inspire their peers to do the same or overcomes adversity and challenges to turn their trajectory of life toward setting and achieving goals to reach their full potential and inspires their peers to do the same.

Violeta Panayatova – Tempe Preparatory Academy
Jesus Espinoza – South Mountain Community College